Website planning, documentation

INTRODUCTION

This report shows the planning and documentation for the development of a website MAJOR CHEM PTY LTD ,a chemical manufacturing company based in Gaborone, Botswana. The purpose of this report is to outline the processes involved in designing and developing a functional, user friendly and responsive website.

The website covers key aspects of the development process including website specifications, information design, page template design, technical requirements, testing procedures, publishing methods and future developments.

Website specifications

I) Objectives

The objective of the website is to promote MAJOR CHEM PTY LTD products and provide information about their cleaning products.

ii)Goals

- Increase brand awareness
- Promote cleaning products
- Attract new customers
- Provide contact details

iii)Target audience

- Commercial cleaning companies
- Businesses
- Institutional
- Retailers
- General consumers

iv)Type of website

Business

Information design and taxonomy

1. Site map diagram

2. Navigation structure

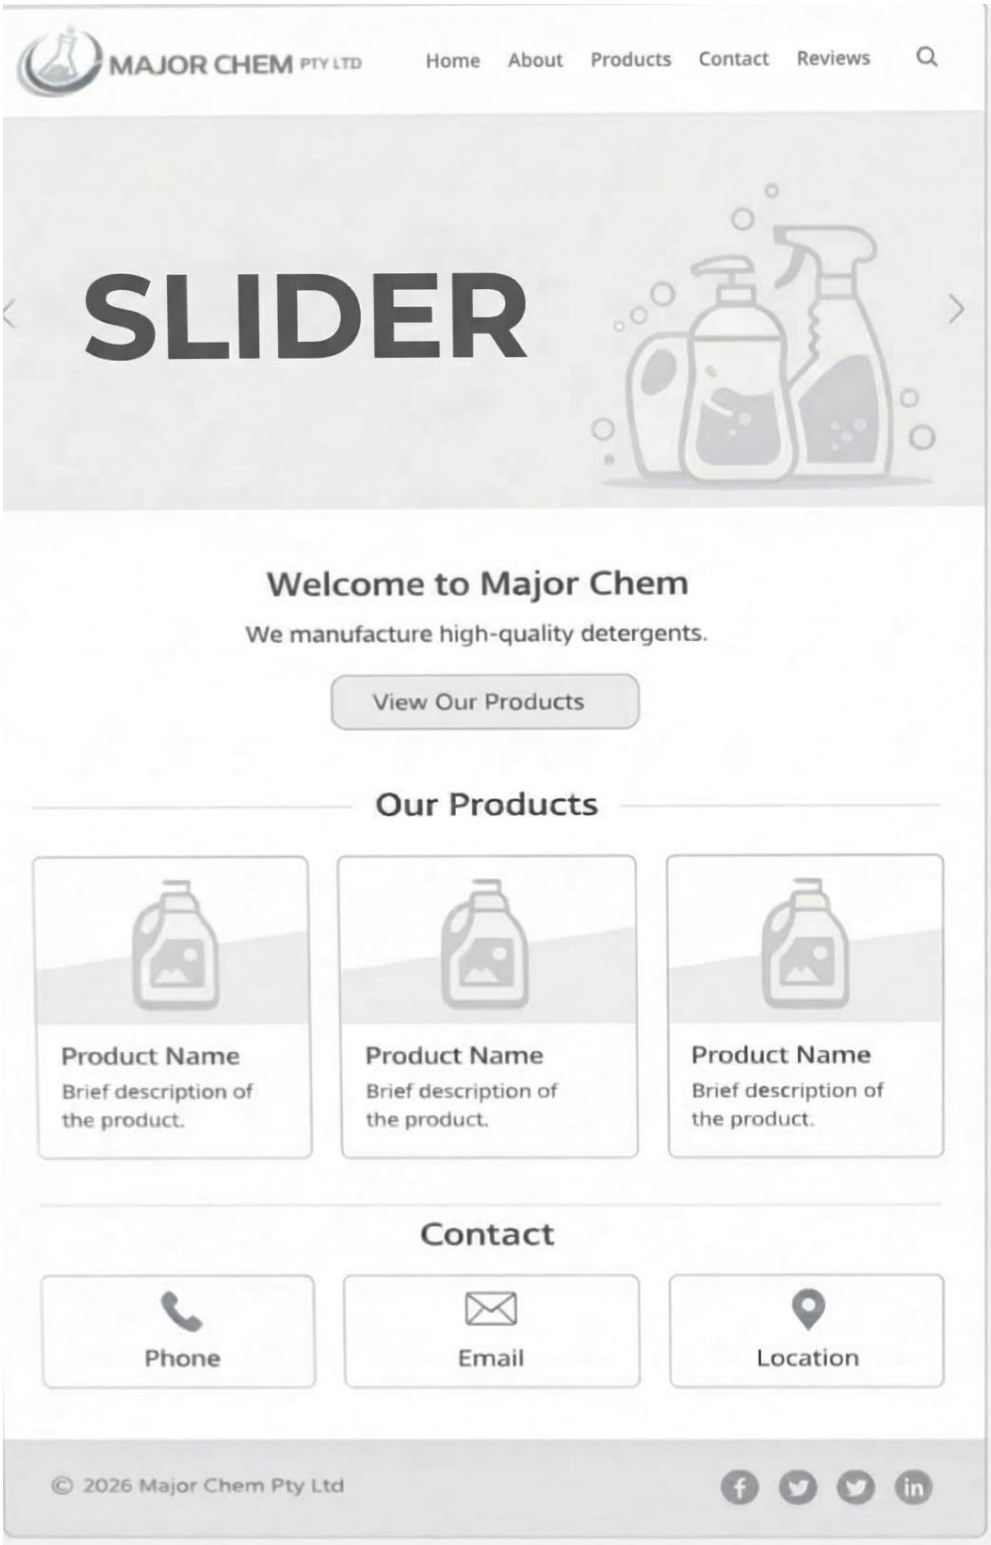
The website uses a top navigation bar available on all pages. Users can easily move between pages. All pages are accessible within three clicks

Page template design

Wireframe layout



MAJOR CHEM PTY LTD
Home
About
Products
Contact
Reviews
SLIDER
Welcome to Major Chem
We manufacture high-quality detergents.
View Our Products
Our Products
Product Name
Brief description of the product.
Product Name
Brief description of the product.
Product Name
Brief description of the product.
Contact
Phone
Email
Location
© 2026 Major Chem Pty Ltd

Description
The website layout consists of a header, navigation menu ,main content area ,products display section and footer .This ensures consistency across all pages.

Technical brief

The website will be developed using the following tools

1. HTML 5: structure webpage
2. CSS: styling and layout design
3. Java script: interactivity and form validation
4. Bootstrap : responsiveness on mobile devices
5. Visual studio code: coding
6. GitHub: hosting
7. Gimp: create images

Therefore these tools ensure that the website is modern, responsive and user friendly.

Quality assurance

i. Testing
   - Google chrome
   - Fire fox
   - Mobile devices

ii. Results
The website functions correctly across different browsers and devices with no errors .

Publishing and promotion

The website is hosted using GitHub pages

Steps taken

I. Creating repository
II. Uploading files
III. Using git commands
   - Git init
   - Git add
   - Git commit
   - Git push

IV. Website link

Future developments

- Adding online ordering system
- Adding payment integration
- Improve design and animations
- Adding user accounts and login features

Conclusion

In conclusion this report has outlined the planning and development process for MAJOR CHEM PTY LTD website. The prosed design ensures a structured, user friendly and responsive website that meet user standards. Through planning testing and implementation the website will effectively promote the company's products and enhance its on line presence. Future improvements will further enhance functionality and user experience